

The Structure of the ILP for a Business Plan

Title Page

Abstract

Acknowledgements (Optional)

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction

Chapter 2: Literature Review

Chapter 3: Methodology

Chapter 4: Executive Summary of the Business Plan

Chapter 5: Mission and Objectives of the Business Plan

Chapter 6: Experience with this Business

Chapter 7: Customer Analysis

Chapter 8: Market Assessment

Chapter 9: Products and Services

Chapter 10: Marketing Plan

Chapter 11: Sales Plan

Chapter 12: Staffing

Chapter 13: Major Assumptions and Dependencies

Chapter 14: Financial Projections

Chapter 15: Milestones and Schedules

Chapter 16 (Last Chapter): Conclusions

Statement of Learning

Reference List

Appendices

Resume

Italics denotes business plan. Non-italics are requirements from ILP Handbook. ILP Handbooks states "Chapters 4 ...x are Substantive Chapters." If you are doing a business plan, your business plan is the content of the substantive chapters (e.g., that is the substance of your ILP).